Wonderful tea-time concert in Hotel Chesa Grischuna

The Klosters Music Festival held their Annual General Meeting last Saturday in the Chesa followed by a delicious afternoon tea and concert. Sadly, the exceptionally talented Columbian soprano Julieth Lozano who has performed at the last two Christmas Concerts was refused entry into Switzerland at Zurich Airport and had to fly back to the UK where she is resident.

cs | Nevertheless, her Swiss born partner, an acclaimed violinist, continued on to Klosters and gave a fabulous concert accompanied by talented pianist Marco Scilironi, playing some of the works (and extra editions), from Dvorak, Kreisler, Schubert, Beethoven, Rimsky-Korsakov and Ponce that were originally on the programme but without the stunning voice of Julieth! It was a very relaxing afternoon of high-class classical music and thank you to the President of Klosters Music Festival Geoff Richards, the KMF board and the Chesa Grischuna for a truly lovely afternoon tea and concert.

At the AGM, Monika Mark was welcomed as the new Vice President of KMF and Floris Alders as a new member of the board. The Christmas Concerts will take place from the 11th-13th December 2020 with a fabulous programme put together by the Artistic Director Stephan Johns and assisted by Concert Manager Caterina Ciani. Information on the programme will be posted on the website in due course. Meanwhile, do support this fantastic organisation and a festive weekend of high class music by becoming a member, donor or sponsor and all the details are on the website:

Grand opening of the new Spar

cs | Lodi Kurz and Daria Beeli with some of their team preparing for the grand opening of the new Spar in Klosters! Over the last 4 days they have managed to 'facelift' the old Denner with the help of more than 40 people and turn the shop into a sparkling new Spar which opened yesterday 2nd July but the opening festivities continue until Saturday afternoon with prizes and a 10% discount on most of their new range. Stefan from the Teehütte will also be grilling Burgers on Friday and Spare Ribs on Saturday. Come along and welcome the new Spar to Klosters!
